Dear Sir:

I, R. Scott Weide, an attorney registered to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office and attorney of record in the above-referenced case, state and declare as follows:

1. With respect to the claims of the above-referenced patent application there are infringing products being sold in the marketplace;
2. I have made a rigid comparison of the alleged infringing devices with the claims of the application and determined that, in my opinion, some of the claims are unquestionably infringed; and

Appl. No. : Unknown
Filed : Herewith

3. I have caused to be made a careful and thorough search of the prior art. Submitted herewith please find an Information Disclosure Statement with copies of references found in the search.

I declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application, any patent issuing thereon, or any patent to which this verified statement is directed.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: April 21, 2004
